WORK

With an increasing demand for flexible working environments that also upholds your companies branding, McNicholl Hughes strive to provide a positive stress free environment rather than simply just supplying desking and storage. We ensure that each office space is individual, has character and is beneficial to both clients and employees.

SHOP

Our aim is to create and deliver your upmarket retail environment that is the envy of the high street. Tough competition and ever increasing expectation from consumers demands only the highest level of quality and finishes, something our highly skilled team have been consistently delivering for over 20 years.

DINE

Great food, attentive service and of course beautiful surroundings are a vital element in the success of an unforgettable dining experience. The quality and standard of the finishing in any restaurant is as vital as the seasoning, and our team creates both practical and luxurious surroundings, setting the scene for any memorable occasion.
